

Are you protected?

Accord oncology products Preventative+Protective

We have recently conducted an in-house study to monitor external contamination on 5-fluorouracil vials with the objective of determining the contamination of 5-fluorouracil present on the external surface of packed vials, based on a very sensitive analytical method. The result of the study has shown that all the vials from the different six batches subject to study had no measurable 5-fluorouracil contamination on the outside of the vials¹.

References:

1. Astron Research Ltd. UK, Monitoring of 5-Fluorouracil contamination on 5-Fluorouracil drug vials (2011).

www.accordhealth.ca

accord
The Evolution of Generics